

Student Performance Analysis Using SQL

Executive Summary

This project analyzes student academic performance using SQL and MySQL Workbench.

Objectives

Evaluate performance, study habits, attendance, and academic outcomes.

Dataset Overview

395 rows and 33 columns.

Key Findings

Higher study time generally leads to better grades. Excessive absences are linked to lower grades.

Conclusion

SQL analysis provides insights into factors influencing student success.